ONE LIZARD—This peasant in the heart of Old Mexico isn't wearing that cold, wriggly lizard next to his skin as a decoration. He imagines that it's magical powers will mend his handily broken collarbone in jig time. He is one of thousands of primitive people in an area where a new educational centre will be built this fall with the aid of a Missions Extension offering given Saturday, September 13, by the Seventh-day Adventist Churches. Educators staffing the centre will work along with doctors and nurses to bring more enlightened concepts to these backward people.

Marriage Vows Exchanged In Double Ring Service

CALGARY—Central United Church, Calgary, was the setting for an evening wedding September 3rd, when Kathleen M. Spurr, A.T.C.M., L.R.S.M., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Spurr of Crossfield, became the bride of Charles Warren Dunford, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dunford of Sylvan Lake. Rev. C. W. Anderson of Ogden and Rev. Ian MacSween of Edmonton performed at the double-ring ceremony before a candle-lit altar banked with baskets of gladioli, gifts from Sylvan Lake friends.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of blush satin, featuring a round yoke of Brussels lace, an heirloom of the groom's family. Her three-quarter length veil of illusion net fell from a headdress of satin trimmed with pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of pink and white gladioli. As jewelry she wore a strand of pearls, Mrs. R. Lawton, attending the bride as matron of honor, wore a blue gold-printed taffeta dress complemented by a chapel veil, and carried a matching bouquet of daisies. Similarly styled gowns of rose gold-printed taffeta were worn by Miss Marjorie Jones and Miss C. Lynch, bridesmaids, who carried matching bouquets of daisies. Their Dutch-style caps and elbow length gloves were of matching material.

Brian Dunford of Edmonton was his brother's groomsman, and guests were ushered by Charles Turner of Sylvan Lake and Delbert Spurr of Red Deer. Mrs. P. Chapman Clarke played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Miss Frances Dibbles of Coleman, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "Still As the Night."

The wedding reception was held at the Coste House, where the parents of the bride and groom assisted in receiving the guests. For the occasion the bride's mother chose a gown of master sheer and lace in Elizabethan rose, with navy accessories and wore a corsage of variegated carnations. The groom's mother was frocked in turquoise crepe and wore a black velvet model hat. A corsage of pink rosebuds and a white gardenia complemented her ensemble. Miss E. D. Lindsay of Saskatoon, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. T. E. Leslie of Moose Jaw, aunt of the groom, presided at the tea table which was decorated with sweet peas, snapdragons and gladioli. A toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. C. W. Anderson, and music selections were played by Miss Mary Spaeth.

The wedding cake was beautifully decorated by Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Hansen of Long Beach, Calif.

Guests were served by Mrs. Frank Avery. Misses Zona Stewart, Irene Preisig, Barbara Bills, Gloria MacRae, Bernice Steele, Thora Thoner, Joan Hutchinson and Bergit Anderson.

To travel the bride wore a dusky rose sult of imported wool gabardine, topped with a wool pastel plaid coat, and complemented her ensemble with a navy velvet hat and navy accessories. Upon their return from a motor trip to the mountains the bridal couple will reside in Sylvan Lake.

Out of town guests included Miss E. D. Lindsay, Saskatoon; Mrs. T. E. Leslie, Moose Jaw; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hansen, Long Beach, Calif.; Miss Gloria MacRae, Austin, Texas; Miss Betty Hill,

Rev. Mr. Dovey Inducted At Crossfield

CROSSFIELD—Between 50 and 60 people attended the induction service on Friday, Sept. 12, when Rev. Dovey was received as pastor of the United Church, Crossfield. Rev. Bell of Airdrie, Rev. Spencely of Calgary and Rev. Ball, former Crossfield pastor, were present to assist with the obligation and general ceremony of induction. Very fine advice was offered by each speaker, and their addresses were constructive and interesting.

In accepting the charge, Rev. Dovey bespoke his pleasure at the welcome he and Mrs. Dovey and family had received, and also stated that he particularly liked that portion of the addresses where Rev. Spencely hoped that he would have a "praying" congregation" and referred to that beautiful passage from the "Passing of Arthur" by Lord Tennyson when he spoke to the "last of all his knights, Sir Bedivere." "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of."

Rev. Dovey hoped that with prayer much may be accomplished here in Crossfield, as elsewhere in this world, which is so needful of prayer.

The Avanti group prepared a nice lunch, assisted in the serving by the senior group, and Rev. Ball called on Mr. Frank Lant who welcomed the new minister and family.

A delegation was present from Airdrie to attend the induction, which was also welcomed by Mr. Lant.

A Striking Contrast

On Monday night of last week, Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent of Canada attended the football game in Edmonton with Premier E. C. Manning of Alberta. While the Alberta premier held the ball, the aging prime minister (70 years old) gave it the best kick he could, which resulted in what the sports writers term a "dribble".

The thought of a Social Credit premier holding the ball for a Liberal prime minister gave Mr. St. Laurent the idea for a wise crack. Substance of this was that in Ottawa he usually feels that he is holding the ball for the provincial premiers to kick at!

This all makes for a good-fellow feeling among Canadians and we can hardly imagine any Canadian government leader, on whatever level of local, provincial or federal politics he happens to be, refusing to take part in a football kick-off.

Readers will remember, however, that last fall—a year ago—His Royal Highness, Duke of Edinburgh, Consort to Queen Elizabeth, flatly refused to kick-off in the football game put on for the Royal visitors. Evidently the Prince felt he was too good to identify himself with the common football player. The attitude of a Royal Prince who can take no credit for personal achievement for his success is a striking contrast to the attitudes of men who have risen in public life to positions of honor and responsibility by their own hard work.

Whether we like to admit it or not, the Canadian way of life has little or no place in it for nose-snubbing royalty. Perhaps the only reason we tolerate it at all is that it is so many miles away from us and seldom bothers to come here and inspect its "subjects".

It Might Have Been

Last month the dominion bureau of statistics issued its estimate of grain production in Canada. The total works out to about 1,446,000,000 bushels of grain for the nation and 1,302,000,000 bushels for the prairie provinces.

In the years when the speculative system of grain marketing was in full swing, the announcement of such enormous production would be calamitous. If past experience is any criterion, markets would "nose-dive" and farmers would go into the harvest season with worried brows.

In past years farmers always disliked to hear estimates of record crop production. They knew what such news stories would do to the market. Last week's government estimates, however, did not cause a ripple of excitement among farm people. They know that the Wheat Board initial price has been fixed and support levels, even although they are quite modest, are in effect on oats and barley.

It is past experience that has caused the great majority of grain producers in Western Canada to cling to the Wheat Board. In the plebiscite held in Manitoba last autumn, in which 67 per cent of the eligible farmers voted, 89 per cent voted in favor of the Wheat Board marketing their oats and barley.

Note and Comment

In Canada the potato acreage this year totals 294,000 compared with 284,900 last year, an increase of 3 per cent.

Shipments of grain from the lakehead in the 1951-52 crop year (with one week remaining), totalling 410 million bushels, were the second heaviest on record. In the 1944-45 crop year lake shipments amounted to 490.2 million bushels.

Ordinarily the railway companies have a large supply of grain cars in Manitoba when harvesting starts. The situation is different this year, as most boxcars are in Saskatchewan and Alberta in an effort by the railways to ease congestion in those two provinces.

Those D.P.'s

No one would argue about the fact that Canada needs more people, must have them, indeed, if the nation's resources are to be developed and the nation is to fulfill her destiny.

Yet one hears murmurings across the land on the part of some Canadians that those D.P.'s are taking jobs that rightfully belong to native-born men and women. Such an attitude merely indicates superficial thinking from a selfish point of view.

It is true, perhaps, that there are individual, perhaps isolated cases of newcomers from Europe or other parts of this continent obtaining jobs that Canadians might well regard as theirs. But in the nation-wide picture the fact is that the more new-Canadians arrive in our land, the more jobs there will be, for these men and women and their families require food and housing and, in time, all the other things that Canadians today regard as necessities. Thus markets are extended for both farm and manufactured products, making for greater work opportunities.

The very term "Displaced Person" has come, unfortunately, to have a tinge of disapprobation. It is time it were dropped in referring to people from other lands who come to Canada to make their home.

Not so long ago we overheard a bit of beefing because Indians were being employed on a certain construction job. The Indians were spoken of as D.P.'s. That of course is very funny for who has more right to the term Canadian than the descendants of the tribes here long before the white man appeared on the scene?

Looking back a bit in our history, we find that Canada as we know it was built by men and women from old lands of Europe and Asia. And Canadians today who look askance at the arrival of immigrants forget that they, too, are the descendants of earlier D.P.s.

Canada's population is a mixture of nationalities and from that mixture is arising a nation not quite like any that exists or ever has existed. Canada is young. Confederation is only a short 85 years old; and the evolution from colonial status to nationhood gained momentum only since World War I.

Newcomers, D.P.'s, are bringing with them to our land new skills, new ideas, a willingness to work hard, an ardent desire to participate in the freedoms and opportunities for development that are ours.

Canadians must welcome them, help them to become assimilated. And Canada must have millions more men and women from crowded Great Britain and European countries, from the United States and perhaps, from Asia to people our vast empty spaces and to help us build a great nation in the northern part of this continent.

But let's stop calling these new citizens D.P.'s; let's call them what they are, new Canadians.

The Law Pokes Along

(From the Calgary Albertan)

More than twenty-one months ago a natural gas explosion at Leduc took several lives and injured several other persons. Within a short time law-suits were started on behalf of the killed and the injured. Now it is announced from Edmonton that "it is not expected that any of them will go to trial before early next year," that is, until at least twenty-six months after the accident.

In the meantime what are the claimants supposed to live on? Not one cent has been paid to them in all this time, even those who were deprived of their entire livelihood.

If civil actions are usually stalled as this one has been, then justice is indeed pretty deficient in Alberta. The responsible branches of the judicial machinery ought to be ashamed of themselves. Why can't these things be cleared up in reasonable time?

THE DASHING FOUR.

WHAT THEY REJECTED

You say in an editorial (Aug. 15th) that in the recent voting "Albertans generally condone the poor roads . . .", that they "do not want a reduction in municipal taxes," and that they "turned down rural electrification with interest free loans."

If this is true, then they turned down much more than that. With respect to the last item above, the CCF proposed public power lines free of charge. The CCF also proposed $10 a year car and health insurance.

However, the people who voted SC probably believe Manning will yet do the best possible on these matters and the Premier now has big money behind him to help perpetuate this idea at election time.

It should be more thoroughly shown that Manning has never yet kept a set of election promises. He uses them for vote catching, and after the election we get only excuses. He did not keep his 1948 promises re reduced taxes, municipal aid, power, farm stability, etc., and he will not keep his 1952 promises either.

This is because Social Credit is now on such good terms with people such as the "big oil producers" who, as quoted by Time, Aug. 12, 1952, "approve of Manning's handling of Alberta's rich oil resources."

If the oil producers approve, the rest of us have grounds for disapproval. When this becomes more generally realized, then the voters will make it more clear what they are really "turning down."

And in Lac Ste. Anne, the majority have already turned thumbs down on Manning, by a score of 3027 to 1639 on the first count. Especially to those 1878 who gave the CCF their support on the first, second and third counts, go my most sincere thanks, and the promise that so long as Manning continues to put big business interests ahead of ours, so long will we keep up the fight against him.

O.A.P. WOES

Old age pensions go to all at age 70. Yet, all the poor souls born in Canada up to now can look forward to a life expectancy of less than 70 years. Besides, the baby bonus quits at 16 and the O.A.P. doesn't start until 54 years later. How are we going to get along in the meantime? Social security? Bah! What we need is Social Credit, plenty of money and no work.

DAILY BAPTISMS

To curb moral delinquency and help the moral rearmament program let the public know there are churches they may join and be baptized any day. This is too important to be relegated to one day a week. Joining a church is a personal matter between the person and God, it does not have to be a public affair. Many people are self-conscious about doing things in public and do not join.

BIGGER OPPOSITION GROUP IN NEXT LEGISLATURE

A large Liberal opposition will sit in the next Alberta legislature although the party did not win as many seats as was hoped for in the August 5 provincial election.

Elected to the new legislature were provincial leader J. Harper Prowse, Edmonton; Ald. Harold Tanner, Edmonton; Hugh John MacDonald, Calgary; and J. R. Desfosses, Grouard.

All but Mr. Tanner were members of the last House, but his addition to the Liberal ranks will be greatly felt during future sessions.

The most significant feature of the election was the small margins by which the Social Credit party carried many seats, and the big reduction in Premier E. C. Manning's personal following in Edmonton.

Several constituencies returned Social Credit members where but a very small shift in voter sentiment would have sent Liberals to the legislature.

These ridings include Lac la Piche, where Social Credit Harry Lobay was elected over Liberal candidate Wilkiam Hamilton by torney-General Lucien Maynard won election over Liberal candidate Arthur Soetaert by only 274 votes, and several others.

In addition, the same small margin was noticeable in many constituencies where C.C.F. candidates ran second to successful Social Crediters.

In Edmonton, Premier Manning received only 32 per cent of the votes. This compared to the 45 per cent he received in the last provincial election.

Liberal workers were not disheartened by the re-election of the government, which won 52 of the 61 seats.

Leader J. Harper Prowse said the party would continue to work for the day when the people of Alberta would realize they need a Liberal government.

He said it was "not our objective to defeat the government, but to show the people how they have been betrayed by the Social Credit party."

The stronghold of Social Credit strength was obviously in southern Alberta, where the government carried every seat, and in outlying rural areas.

In the north, and in the cities, the sentiment was decidedly in favor of opposition parties.

A sad feature of the election is that although opposition parties gained 45 per cent of the popular vote, they will only hold nine seats in the House.

This proportion is definitely not in line with the general sentiment of the public.

The Liberal popular vote was up considerably over 1948. The Liberals gained 24 per cent of the total ballots, compared to 18 per cent in 1948.

Although the gains in this election were small, the handwriting is definitely on the wall. Right now, even only a few weeks after the election, the Liberal party is already working and planning for the future.

Honey Now Sold By Class, Grade

Honey produced in Alberta will be marketed by class and grade under new regulations passed by the Department of Agriculture.

The honey is divided into four classes—white, golden, amber and dark—while the three grades—Nos. 1, 2 and 3—are determined by the water content and quantity of foreign material.

These regulations, which were put into effect at the request of beekeepers, cover only honey which is packed for sale or shipment. No grading is necessary on honey sold directly to consumers from the producer's premises.

Grading is done by the beekeepers themselves who will mark the containers with the class and grade of the honey as well as the net weight and name and address of packer. Any producers who are not certain of the grades of their honey may send representative samples to the Agriculture Branch, Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

Fourth Success In Armena Oil Field

The British American Oil Company Limited has successfully completed a fourth well in the centre of the highly productive Armena field, 30 miles southeast of Edmonton. Ole Berg, Jr., company president, announced today. The potential of this well is 964 barrels of oil per day.

In spite of consistently heavy rainfall, said Mr. Berg, the four wells were "brought in" in record time, the average being 11 days per well. The potentials of the four wells ranged between 940 and 1,020 barrels daily. In excess of 20 feet net sand was encountered over the area of the lease, thus early days of the fur traders, the pass was the meeting place for brigades travelling from the west and east and it was their custom to drink a "Jorum of Punch" to the "Great Company."

Jasper Park Selected By Alpine Club For 1953 Camp

JASPER, Alta.—The Scott Glacier area of Jasper National Park, including the famous "Committee's Punch Bowl" which is steeped in the romance of the early fur traders, has been chosen by the Alpine Club of Canada as the site of its 1953 summer camp.

The decision was made following the recent return of a seven-member reconnaissance party which spent two weeks exploring the area, located about 35 miles from Jasper Park Lodge and which in early years was thought to contain the highest mountains in North America.

The summer camp is scheduled for next July when some 200 club members hailing from across Canada, the United States, Great Britain and Australia, and their 50-horse pack train, undertake the three-day trip into the Scott Glacier area. Members will live under canvas for two weeks while they climb the 10,000-foot or higher peaks in this area.

The seven officers of the club who made the reconnaissance trip were: Mrs. Ethne Gibson, Major Rex Gibson and Cyril Jones, all of Victoria, B.C.; Henry Hall, Cambridge, Mass.; Polly Prescott, Cleveland, Ohio; Joe Cato, Edmonton; and Bradley Gilman, Worcester, Mass.

One of the features of the area is the storied "Committee's Punch Bowl", a lake at the summit of the Athabasca Pass and named after the governing committee of the Hudson's Bay Company. In the

MR. MAYNARD'S CLOSE SHAVE

(Editorial in Edmonton Journal)

The Hon. Joseph Lucien Paul Maynard, attorney-general in Premier Manning's cabinet, has been re-elected in St. Albert constituency, but he must have had a few anxious moments before that necessary second count was concluded.

The tally at the end of the first count was Maynard, 2,198; Soetaert, 1,490; and Dusseault, 1,255. Mr. Maynard was thus 274 votes short of a first-choice majority, and there were 1,255 to be distributed in the second count.

However, the supporters of the C.C.F. candidate, who was low man and hence counted out, were not so anxious to see the opposition in the legislature strengthened as to make it necessary for the attorney-general to seek another seat.

They divided their votes as follows; 512 for the Liberal candidate, Arthur Soetaert, and 167 to Mr. Maynard—and marked no second choice at all on 576 ballots.

The net result is that Mr. Maynard was declared elected with a majority of 363. In 1948, the attorney-general, making his first appearance in the St. Albert constituency, was returned with a majority of 881 over his two opponents combined. In 1944, in Beaver River, he rolled up a majority of 1,018 and in 1940, in the same riding, his lead over the total polled by three opposition candidates was 632.

Mr. Maynard must be wondering about now why he ever left Beaver River.

Canada's 1951 tobacco crop is estimated by the bureau of statistics at 153,790,000 pounds, or an increase of 28 per cent over the 1950 crop.

Potato production in Alberta this year has been estimated at 2,800,000 bushels, as compared with 2,354,000 bushels last year.

adding substantially to B.A.'s reserves in this field.

At the crown sale on August 13 British American purchased an additional quarter section located approximately one mile to the southeast of this developed property. In addition, the company purchased another quarter section in the Camrose area along the same trend. "It is our intention to develop this acreage as soon as Steel becomes available," Mr. Berg added.

WORKERS ON DOUBLE SHIFT TO SPEED WORK ON NICKEL PLANT

FORT SASKATCHEWAN—Within a week, over 200 employees will be working on the nickel plant in order to hurry it along, it was announced last week. The $17,500,000 nickel refinery is being built at Fort Saskatchewan for Sherritt Gordon Mines Ltd. Good progress is reported on the preliminary construction at present with about 180 men at work. Forms are being set for walls of the sulphate storage building, one of the major units, and preparations are being made to pour concrete foundations for the administration building. Consultants from the east were expected on Saturday to select a location for a water intake plant on the river.

Scriptural Meditations

By AINSLEY BLAIR

"The divine beauty of the character of Christ, of whom the noblest and most gentle among men are but a faint reflection; of whom Solomon wrote, He is 'the chiefest among ten thousand,' . . . yea, He is altogether lovely" (Song of Solomon 5:10-16); of whom David, seeing Him in prophetic vision, said, 'Thou art fairer than the children of men' (Psalm 45:2); Jesus, the express image of the Father's person, the effulgence of His glory; the self-denying Redeemer, throughout His pilgrimage of love on earth, was a living representation of the character of the law of God. In His life it is made manifest that heaven-born love, Christlike principles, underlie the laws of eternal rectitude."

Gibbons Man Falls Into Harvester

GIBBONS—Mr. Leo Moreau had a very unusual experience three weeks ago, which he does not want to repeat.

He fell into the power takeoff while harvesting, and fell in such a way that with one arm free, he was able to shut it off, and perhaps saved his life.

His calls attracted his neighbor Mr. H. Sprague who rushed over to assist him in freeing him from his precarious position.

After examination by a doctor, no bones were found broken but his legs and one arm were badly bruised and crushed and his clothing was badly riddled and torn.

Two Sisters Teach Again

GIBBONS—Two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Johnson who have been attending summer school at the University of Alberta during the summer holidays have had a short vacation rest at their parental home, and last Tuesday resumed their teaching duties.

Mrs. Faye Bacon is again on the teaching staff of the Fort Saskatchewan schools, while Miss Miriam will this year be teaching at McKay Avenue school in Edmonton where she will teach some subjects in grades 7-8-9. She also has been engaged as physical training instructor.

Extra Week's Hunting For Ducks and Geese

Improved waterfowl breeding conditions in Alberta have resulted in the 1952 duck and goose hunting seasons being extended to 58 days, a week longer than the 1951 seasons.

Dates for the open seasons on duck and goose are as follows:

Sept. 3-Nov. 8: North of the Athabasca River and township 72.
Sept. 10-Nov. 15: South from the Athabasca River and township 72 to highways 11 and 12 through Red Deer and Lacombe.

Sept. 17-Nov. 22: South of highways 11 and 12 to the international border.

Daily bag limits are eight ducks, five geese and 10 rails and coots combined.

Plan Drive-In Near Egremont

GIBBONS—A drive-in theatre situated on the highway near Egremont is seen as a definite possibility following discussions between interested parties from Winnipeg and local business men.

Though still in the planning stage it has been learned from authoritative sources the present plan calls for a 250 to 300 car theatre with complete sound and electrical system at an estimated cost of $20,000.

The promoters feel the site near Egremont would have the advantage of being centrally located and would serve the district as a whole. The site chosen will be on Highway 25.

Communism, like Hitlerism, understands force only. Words of wisdom are looked upon as signs of weakness.

Car Rolls Over; Young Girl Hurt

EAST EDMONTON—What could have been much more serious, was an accident that occurred shortly before two o'clock Sunday afternoon on the South Cooking Lake Trail.

Occupants of the car were Mr. Paul Galace and Misses Julia and Jean Bacon, all of Edmonton. All three were shaken up, and Miss Julia Bacon received a severe gash to her knee which required six stitches to close it, and several lesser cuts to her left hand. The injured girl was taken to the University Hospital by Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stannard who happened at the scene seconds after it had happened. Mr. Buster Wannacott, who stopped, took the other two to the hospital, where Miss Bacon was being treated.

LETTERS TO LOUISA

Dear Louisa:

I am in love with a man who has asked me to marry him but I am hesitating about accepting him because he has been married before and I am afraid that he is still in love with his divorced wife. She has not remarried and I do not know why they parted.

Do you think that if I married him he would forget his ex-wife or do you think I am making a mistake by thinking of marrying him?

Answer:

You do not say why you think he is still in love with his former wife, but you must have some good reason for believing that to be true. If he is, I am afraid that you will be building up unhappiness for yourself by such a marriage and I should not rush into it hastily if I were you. It may be that he is lonesome and unhappy and is turning to you on the rebound.

Of course, there are cases where young people rush into marriage before they realize what it is all about and are not happy until they do separate.

But you should be able to judge your young man's feelings by the way he behaves and what he says.

LOUISA.

Dear Louisa:

I am a widow with three small children and a man ten years older than I has proposed to me. He is very considerate of me and seems devoted to the children. The children like him too but my mother says that we are all getting along well staying with father and her and she doesn't see why I want to risk another unhappy marriage.

But this man and my first husband are very different people. My husband was very gay and irresponsible and we never knew whether the bills would be paid or not.

What do you think?

MRS. G. L.

Answer:

There is certainly no sense in judging all men by one who was lacking in good traits. And, if this man loves you and your children and can provide you with a nice home you and your children's lives will be more normal and happier it seems to me, than they are living with your parents.

You will certainly have more time to give to your children if your husband is paying the bills than you will if you have to work outside the home.

LOUISA.

B. G.

What's In The Name?

BEISEKER

Named after Thomas L. Beiseker, banker, of Fessenden, North Dakota, who lived in the area for 10 years and was largely responsible for the settlement of the region with successful farmers.

The village of Beiseker is situated in a farming region some 41 miles west of Drumheller. The population in 1946 was 272.

ATHABASCA

The town of Athabasca, 100 miles north of Edmonton, has a population of around 1,063 people. The main type of occupation carried on within the area is mixed farming.

Athabasca town changed its name from Athabasca Landing in 1904. The name was derived from an Indian word "caupawin", a Cree name meaning "landing."

In reference to the Athabasca river, when the Indian spoke the word "Athabasca" he meant "the place where there are reeds." When probably he also mentioned the word "Athabasca", he had in mind the muddy delta of that river.

As early as 1849 the R.C. Church opened a mission in the district, but it was not until 1865 that a trading post was established and named Athabasca Landing. The actual history goes back to 1862 when it was the Hudson's Bay Company Reserve. Goods were trailed in from Fort Edmonton at the time.

Between 1900 and 1914 there

I was shopping one day, and on my way home I stopped at the store. I put my shopping bag down and walked to the next counter. In the meantime someone put her shopping bag beside mine, when I came back, I noticed an extra parcel in my shopping bag. I picked it up, and it unwrapped and fell out, I stared at it—and then I said—who in the heck! Just then an old lady came along and picked it up and said, "it's mine. She had misplaced it, I really was embarrassed—You see, it was a big pair of bloomers!"

MRS. BILL WOGIL.

Smoky Lake, Alta.

When I was reading a book at noon hour in school, one of my friends came up quietly and hit me on the head with a broom and then ran outside. I quickly grabbed another broom and stood by the door ready to hit when he would come in. I heard footsteps, and then the door opened. Whack! But who did I just about hit but my teacher. Six times after school was my punishment for misbehaving.

JULIAN BIZON.

were so many traders operating out of Athabasca Landing, as it was known, that five boats plied the river to McMurray.

The first train arrived from Edmonton in 1912 and the people who went out to cheer it, went out again the next year to fight a fire which nearly destroyed the entire town of Athabasca. The first wheat crop was grown in 1908.

The Care of Farm-Stored Grain

The farmers of Western Canada are faced with the problem of storing a considerable portion of the 1952 crop on the farm, probably for long periods. Is your granary ready for the safe storage of this year's crop?

Facing Facts. As yet, the only practical means of insuring the keeping quality of grain is to store it at a sufficiently low moisture content to prevent spoiling. The fact is that uniformly dry grain (13 per cent moisture or lower for wheat, oats, barley and rye; and 10 per cent moisture or lower for flax) will not spoil, providing it is stored in a clean weatherproof, well-ventilated granary. Bin your grain as dry as possible.

Preparing that Granary. Here are some practical suggestions from Dr. H. E. Gray, Head, Stored Product Insect Investigations, Ottawa. (1) A granary with a wooden floor above the ground is best for farm storage. (2) If the granary floor is concrete, cover it with moisture proof paper.

(3) Repair leaky roofs, windows, and doors to exclude rain and snow. (4) Clean walls and floors thoroughly. Sprinkle a little hydrated lime over the floor and sweep it about to fill cracks. (5) If insects or mites were present last year, coat the inside walls with whitewash containing one-quarter of a pound of lye per gallon. (6) Fill the granary to the plate only. Ample space between the grain surface and the roof must be provided for ventilation. (7) Open bins or piles are risky. If at all possible, place on well-drained ground on two or three feet of thoroughly dry straw. Piles should be uniform cones.

If you have to store "tough," or green weed-infested grain, put it in small bins. Examine it frequently, and market it as soon as possible. If trouble develops, consult your local elevator Agent, or write to Officer-in-Charge, Stored Product Insect Investigations, Canada Department of Agriculture, Winnipeg or Ottawa.

131 Bushels Said Wheat Yield

LONDON—A wheat crop of 131 bushels to the acre, believed to be a world record, has been claimed by John Turrell, a farmer in the Wiggenshall St. Mary district of Norfolk.

The yield was harvested from a strip of land of approximately nine acres, formerly an orchard and seeded to wheat for the first time this year.

The huge crop represents more than three times the average acreage yield in Britain. The previous highest known yield was 114 bushels reported from The Netherlands last year.

Colonel C. A. Debenham of King's Lynn, who provided the seed, said the strain sown was known as Hybrid 46, a lower-quality grain used mainly for biscuits. He ascribed the phenomenal yield to the richness of the soil and first-class farming.

CROSSFIELD NEWS BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Stillings have broken the twin jinx that hit Crossfield and are the happy and proud parents of a bouncing boy, born Sept. 9 in the Holy Cross hospital, Calgary. This makes two boys and two girls for the Stillings. They are calling the new baby Robert Elliott.

The Happy Gang Garden Club members are not quite as happy—they are in fact very blue—having their leader, Mrs. F. Laut and one of their Toronto winners, Joanne Copley, both victims of polio.

Mrs. Charles Northcote, Vulcan, sister of Mrs. Garnet O'Neill, spent a week in hospital with a severe case of influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Mumby recently spent a few days visiting the latter's parents in Orion, near Manyberries.

On Friday morning Mrs. Hank McDonald underwent surgery once more in a Calgary hospital. Her friends are all pulling for her.

Mrs. Mary Green, who recently celebrated her 70th birthday with her Rebekah sisters at the Ballam home was recently badly burned about the arms when she fell with a pail of boiling water, whilst going down the door steps at her home. She was busy scalding chickens for canning. She is progressing favorably and is extremely cheerful as is always the case. It is hoped she will soon be well again.

Don't forget the sale of home cooking the United Church is sponsoring, Saturday, Sept. 27, in Will Laut's store.

Joanne Copley, well known high school student in Crossfield, and favored soloist, is at present having a battle with polio in the Isolation hospital, Calgary. It has a slight hold on her arms but the doctors have every hope of her complete recovery.

Mrs. Frank Laut, polio patient, has good days and bad days, but is able to walk with help.

Wendy Maureen, 7 lb. 2 oz. twin girl, born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lilley, is under special care of Dr. Pryce in the General hospital and was unable to come home with mother and brother on Saturday last.

What might have proved a serious fire was quickly brought under control by the local fire brigade when it was summoned to quell flames in an outbuilding situated in the backyard of the old Telephone building which is owned by Mr. F. Mossop.

Around 2 a.m. on Sunday, Ed. Gilson noticed the flames and promptly awakened the residents. It was thought that a cigarette or match thoughtlessly tossed near the building from the alley way might have caused the fire.

Mrs. S. Bottomley and Paul left for their Medicine Hat home on Thursday evening. They had spent the past month with Pat and Walter Lilley, but due to ill health Mrs. Bottomley had to shorten her visit.

Crossfield will have some new teachers this year.

Const. and Mrs. Mansell left Monday to conclude their holidays. They hope to visit South of the Border.

Miss Barbara Bills will soon be leaving for Edmonton where she will put in her second year of university.

School is now scheduled to open on Sept. 29.

Miss Birgit Anderson, daughter of a former pastor of the United Church, is receiving congratulations on a $250 scholarship.
